

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface	IV
Introduction	VI
Part One: Starting Out	1
Chapter 1: Help! I'm an Adjunct Professor!	3
Chapter 2: What They Never Told You in the Interview	15
Part Two: Preparing to Teach	25
Chapter 3: Best Practices: Seven Principles	27
Chapter 4: Designing a Course	40
Chapter 5: Selecting and Using Textbooks	52
Chapter 6: Designing a Course Syllabus	66
Part Three: Teaching College Students Successfully	83
Chapter 7: What College Students Want	85
Chapter 8: How College Students Learn	99
Chapter 9: The First Day, First Impressions	111
Chapter 10: Conducting a Class	126
Chapter 11: Effective Lectures = Effective Learning	140
Chapter 12: Teaching Large Classes	155
Chapter 13: Questions—Your Most Powerful Teaching Tool	169
Chapter 14: Discussions: The Right Way	188
Chapter 15: Collaborative and Cooperative Groups	202
Part Four: Challenges and Possibilities	219
Chapter 16: Problem Students (and their solution)	221
Chapter 17: Teaching Nontraditional Students	235
Chapter 18: Diverse Students; Diverse Populations	248
Chapter 19: Evaluation of Students	260
Chapter 20: Issues and Concerns	282
Chapter 21: Teaching Remotely	296
Part Five: Life as an Adjunct	313
Chapter 22: Evaluation of Teaching	315
Chapter 23: The Successful Adjunct Professor - You!	328
Chapter 24: Get the Job!	340
Appendixes	356
Appendix A: Professional Resources	356
Appendix B: Sample Syllabi	357
Index	361
About the Author	373